

Award: Up to $350,000; no match

Eligible: Nonprofits, Native American tribal governments (Federally recognized)

This program supports projects that provide an essential underpinning for scholarship, education, and public engagement in the humanities. It strengthens efforts to extend the reach of humanities collections and make their intellectual content widely accessible. Awards also support the creation of reference resources that facilitate the use of cultural materials, from works that provide basic information quickly to tools that synthesize and codify knowledge of a subject for in-depth investigation.

Historic Preservation Fund - Underrepresented Communities Grants

National Park Service

Deadline: July 18, 2023

Awards: $15,000-$75,000; no match

Eligibility: Native American tribal governments (Federally recognized and other than Federally recognized), non-profits

The National Park Service's (NPS) Underrepresented Communities Grant Program (URC) is intended to diversify the nominations listed in the National Register of Historic Places to include communities that are currently underrepresented. URC grants are funded by the Historic Preservation Fund (HPF), and are administered by the NPS. Projects include surveys and nominations of historic sites associated with communities underrepresented in the National Register. Every URC project MUST result in at least one new or amended nomination to the National Register of Historic Places.

Public Impact Projects at Smaller Organizations

National Endowment for the Humanities

Deadline: June 28, 2023

State-Tribal Partnerships to Implement Best Practices in Indian Child Welfare

Department of Health and Human Services

Deadline: June 13, 2023

Awards: $450,000-$500,000; no match

This funding opportunity is intended to encourage state and tribal governments to work together to find creative, common-sense ways to meet the needs of AI/AN families with culturally appropriate best practices in Indian child welfare, with active efforts to retain or reunite Indian children with family as the "gold standard" for best Indian child welfare practice. The grant also provides an important opportunity for states and tribes to build or strengthen relationships of trust by working together toward common family preservation goals. As part of the project, recipients may also consider the role of civil legal services in implementation efforts.
